

coexistence

Downtown Minneapolis Noon Speaker Series

All events are free and take place in the lobby of One Financial Plaza, 120 South Sixth Street. Talks begin at 12 noon.

Tuesday, May 4

Institutions for Peace and Coexistence: The Case of the Modern Olympics

Theofanis Stavrou, University of Minnesota Department of History

Wednesday, May 5

Coexistence in Finland

Pauliina Raento, University of Minnesota Department of Geography

Thursday, May 6

The Real Tragedies of Yugoslavia

Gary Cohen, University of Minnesota Department of History

Friday, May 7

Tolerance-Intolerance-Coexistence: What's in a Word?

Stephen Feinstein, director of the University of Minnesota Center for Holocaust and Genocide Studies

Monday, May 10

The Concepts of the "Foreigner" and the "Other" in the Koran and the Bible

Taner Akcam, University of Minnesota Department of History

Tuesday, May 11

Coexistence in Lake Wobegon? New immigrants in Small-Town Minnesota

Helga Leitner, University of Minnesota Department of Geography

Coexistence is a colossal outdoor art exhibit that explores equality, humanity, and "the art of living together." It was initiated and created by the Museum on the Seam, Jerusalem. It is presented in the Twin Cities by the University of Minnesota College of Liberal Arts, with major support from Allianz Life Insurance Company and Regis Foundation.

In Minneapolis: May 1 – June 12, Hennepin County Government Center Plaza

In St. Paul: June 14 – July 6, Rice Park

For up-to-the-minute information: www.chgs.umn.edu/coexistence.

Thank you to Zeller Realty Corporation for donating the space for this event.

UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA

College of Liberal Arts