

coexistence

The Center for German & European Studies proudly presents

Downtown St. Paul Noon Speaker Series

All presentations are free and open to the public. Talks begin at 12 noon and take place in the Landmark Center (Chief Justice Room), 75 West Fifth Street.

Tuesday, June 15

Institutions for Peace and Coexistence: The Case of the Modern Olympics

Theofanis Stavrou, University of Minnesota Department of History

Wednesday, June 16

It's About Time: Jewish Life in Germany Today

Leslie Morris, University of Minnesota Department of German

Thursday, June 17

When Coexistence Fails

Eric Weitz, University of Minnesota Department of History

Friday, June 18

Sticks and Stones: Words and the War in Bosnia

Mirjana Lausevic, University of Minnesota Department of Music

Tuesday, June 22

Racial Conflict and Coexistence: The Case of Asians in Africa

Ron Aminzade, University of Minnesota Department of Sociology

Wednesday, June 23

Tolerance-Intolerance-Coexistence: What's in a Word?

Stephen Feinstein, director of the University of Minnesota Center for Holocaust and Genocide Studies

Coexistence is an international outdoor art exhibit that explores equality, humanity, and "the art of living together." It was initiated and created by the Museum on the Seam, Jerusalem. It is presented in the Twin Cities by the University of Minnesota College of Liberal Arts, with major corporate and foundation support.

In Minneapolis: May 1 – June 12, Hennepin County Government Center Plaza

In St. Paul: June 14 – July 6, Rice Park

For up-to-the-minute information: www.chgs.umn.edu/coexistence

UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA
College of Liberal Arts