

History, Healing and the Human Spirit:
Ten Years after the Rwanda Genocide

Saturday, May 8, 2004

Coffman Union, University of Minnesota
Minneapolis, Minnesota

- 8:00 – 8:45 Registration (Campus Club)
- 8:45 – 9:00 Opening Remarks:
Welcome and Framing of the Agenda
Michele Wagner, UM History Department
(West Wing, Campus Club)
- 9:00 – 10:00 Perspectives of survivors:
A personal history of the experience of the events of 1994
Richard Nsanzbaganwa
Roger Remera
Patricia Shannon, Center for Victims of Torture chair
Michele Wagner, UM History Department, introduction
(West Wing, Campus Club)
- 10:00– 10:15 Break (Campus Club)
- 10:15 – 11:15 Rwandan Historical Consciousness,
David Newbury, Professor of African History, Smith College
Stephen Feinstein, CHGS, introduction
(West Wing, Campus Club)
- 11:15 to 11:30 Break and move to Coffman Theater for keynote presentation
- 11:30 – 12:30 Keynote Presentation:
Living with a Genocide as Part of One's Past,
General Romeo Dallaire, Former Commander of the United Nations
Peacekeeping Forces in Rwanda
(Coffman Theater)
- 12:30 – 1:30 Lunch (Campus Club, West Wing)
- 1:30 – 2:15 Remarks by His Majesty King Kigeli V of Rwanda,
(West Wing, Campus Club)
- 2:15 – 2:30 Break
- 2:30 – 4:15 Living with Trauma:

Panel Discussion about the impact of ethnic conflict and genocide on immigrant communities –

Patricia Shannon, chair

Barbara Frey, co-chair

Panelists:

TBA

(Coffman Union, Rooms A-B-C)

4:15 – 4:30: Break

4:30: Closing ritual