TURKISH OFFICIALS SHOW NO INTEREST

German Government Makes Efforts to Alleviate Alleged Atrocities Upon Armenians.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—Confidential advices received today by the state department said the German government officially had made efforts to alleviate alleged atrocities upon Armenians in Turkey, but that Turkish officials apparently displayed lack of interest in such endeavors. Representations were made by the United States through Ambassador Morgenthau at Constantinople, warning Turkey that continued persecutions of Armenians would alienate the friendship of the American people. Several dispatches on the subject have been received from Ambassador Morgenthau, but there has been no announcement of definite answer from the Ottoman government.
