SAYS GERMANY WILL NOT CALL HALT ON TURKEY

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 7.—Count von Reventlow, in the Deutsche Tages Zeitung, referring to the request of the American government that the German ambassador at London use his influence with the German government on behalf of the Armenians in Turkey, says:
"There can be no question of meddling with the instigation of a third party with the affairs of our Turkish ally. If the Turkish authorities believe it opportune to take vigorous measures against unreliable, blood-thirsty, riotous Armenian elements, it is not only its right, but its duty to do so. Turkey can rest assured that Germany will always regard the matter as one concerning Turkey alone."
