ARMENIANS GO TO FIGHT

Twelve Leave St. Paul to Join Countrymen on Way to Europe.

Another delegation of Armenian volunteers left St. Paul last night for New York, where they will join volunteers from all parts of the United States and go to Europe to fight for their country. Practically all of the soldiery now opposing the Turks in Turkey are Armenian volunteers, many of whom formerly lived in the United States. The delegation which left last night consisted of twelve former St. Paul residents. The first party of twenty-five volunteers left St. Paul several weeks ago.
