

OERTELTPODCAST

www.KVSC.org

As a young Jewish teenage boy, Henry Oertelt lived with his mother and brother in Berlin, Germany as the storm clouds of Hitler's Nazi hatred, discrimination and violence toward Jews grew darker. Henry avoided arrest by the Gestapo until 1943, when at age 22 he began his amazing saga of surviving five Nazi concentration camps. His story of the 18 cliff-hanging events which led to his Nazi death camp survival is told in his book, An Unbroken Chain.

In a world premiere podcast here at KVSC.ORG, Dr. Oertelt tells his astounding story of survival, human dignity and perseverance.

MY NAME IS HENRY OERTELT.
I AM A JEW.
THIS IS THE STORY OF MY JOURNEY.
